

Association for the Study of Travel in Egypt and the Near East

ASTENE Charity Commission Registration Number 1067157

BURSARY APPLICATION FORM

Seminar on Robert Hay and Friends in Egypt

From 3.00 pm on Sunday 10 April to 4.00 pm on Tuesday 12 April 2022
at Duns Castle and the Volunteer Hall, Duns, Berwickshire

Please submit your Bursary Application before 1 March 2022

ASTENE is offering four (4) bursaries to existing ASTENE student members, to students newly joining ASTENE, and to non-members (who must then join to ASTENE to benefit from a bursary). Each of the bursaries is worth up to £250 and covers the Seminar registration fee (£60) and a contribution to the cost of travel, meals and accommodation during the Seminar.

Recipients of a bursary may be asked to provide some administrative assistance, such as helping at the registration desk, manning the bookstall, or providing IT and technical support to those giving papers.

After the Seminar, recipients will be asked to write a 750-1000 word article giving their impressions to serve as a record of the event for publication in the ASTENE Bulletin.

If you wish to apply for a bursary, please provide all the information requested below in an e-mail sent to 2020dunshayastene@gmail.com, with 'Bursary Application' in the subject-line, to be received no later than 1 March 2022. Successful applicants will be advised by 8 March 2022, so that they have time to make their travel and accommodation arrangements to attend the Seminar.
